

Recreation Concert Set This Sunday

Youngsters from six parks will take part in a concert Sunday at the Torrance Park Band Shell Sunday, starting at 1:30 p.m.

Some 70 youngsters who are enrolled in the Torrance Recreation Department's summer music program will take part. The program, under the direction of Jim Davidson, will feature a band, some small combos, and an orchestra.

Assisted by Bob Salisbury, Davidson has directed the program at McMaster, Torrance, WALTERIA, El Retiro, Sea-Alre, and El Nido Parks.

Band numbers will include "Salutation March," "Onward Christian Soldiers," "Blue Danube Waltz," "Merry Widow Waltz," "East Side, West Side," "Round and Round," "Under the Double Eagle March," and "America."

The orchestra will play "March for Young Folks," "Bagdad," "Western Hoe Down," "Pop Goes the Weasel," "Daisy Bell," and "When the Saints Go Marching In."

A combo — Harry Sippel, trumpet; Sandie Baker, clarinet; Randy Power, alto Saxophone; Richard Power, trombone; and Bob Salisbury, piano, will play "Green Door." Sippel and Salisbury will also play "Mama Looka Booboo," Janice Kleinski, violinist, and Bob Salisbury, pianist, will play "Love Me Tender."

FRED E. BRUNNER
... Heads Two Committees

Two Committee Posts Given to Fred E. Brunner

Fred E. Brunner, assistant superintendent of Industrial Relations for the Torrance Works of the United States Columbia-Geneva Steel Division, was appointed chairman of two Torrance Chamber of Commerce committees, according to President A. E. Thompson.

Thompson said that the young steel executive would head committees concerned with education.

Teachers' Luncheon
The first will be a "Teachers Welcome" Committee designed to arrange luncheon and welcoming ceremonies for 173 new Torrance teachers, tentatively scheduled for Sept. 5. Brunner will also serve as chairman for Business-Industry-Education Day later in the year, Thompson added.

Brunner, 39, a graduate of University of California, has been employed by Columbia-Geneva for over 17 years. He
